CityWatch is LA’s opinion, news and information website and newsletter. CityWatch reports and provides perspective on the issues that face us in Los Angeles at the neighborhood level. Our mission is to promote and facilitate civic engagement and neighborhood empowerment, and to hold area government and its politicians accountable. We have a staff of expert journalists who report on what’s important to our community each week.

CityWatch is a multi-media website (text, audio/video) updated 24/7 on www.citywatchla.com and via e-blast twice weekly direct to over 89,000+ opt-in subscribers. Our subscribers are among the most influential people in the city (politicos, developers, unions, business leaders, and everyday stakeholders). They are interested in a growing LA and are actively involved at the rate of 3,360,000 hits per month on citywatchla.com.

CityWatch Principals and Staff

CityWatch was founded in September of 2003 by Mark Siegel and Ken Draper.

Ken Draper has a lengthy professional background in media and communications. He worked as managing consultant for Westinghouse Broadcasting Company’s chain of all news properties and Executive Editor of KFWB All News Radio, he has written for the Chicago Sun Times (among many) and created the Newsletter Network.

Writers, columnists and contributors are selected for CityWatch based on three principles: professional background, expertise on the subject matter or value and clarity of the article submitted is such that it allows exemption from the first two.

All accepted journalistic standards apply at CityWatch.

The Flex-Window may be CityWatch’s most innovative advertising package. It’s like having your own mini-website on our home page immediately adjacent to our lead stories. Our most valuable space.

The Flex-Window is a video, it’s an ad, and it’s a PR story. It’s all those things and it’s all under your control. And, it’s changeable at a moment’s notice depending on your needs.

Some customers will use it to launch their own mini-TV channel with daily-hosted reports. Others will use it to make sure their voice is heard in front of LA’s most influential stakeholders; At last count, over 70,000 subscribers and growing.

You provide the video, ads and stories. Or, for an extra charge, we can do all that. Ask your CW rep for more details about this exciting new concept for the Internet. The package includes:

- A flex-window is the size of an Island Quarter (medium rectangle)
- A mini-banner is attached to the bottom of the flex-window for links and partners
- The ability to post copy, videos, ads, etc. on a daily basis at no charge
- Mirror placement of videos on the CityWatch/youtube partner page
- A Full horizontal banner ad in each CityWatch e-blast during the term of contract

Monthly Cost: $1500
12-Month Package: $15,300*

* Includes 15% discount
